A Good Primer

By Cameron Soran

This book sells you a bill of goods (i.e., 101 air raid plays), and delivers on that promise with gusto. I found it to be a great introduction/primer to the air raid offense. The reason I give the book a four star rating rather than five is that, for the price, I expected greater detail in the quarterback's progressions. Thus, I would highly recommend the book to those who desire a broad overview of the air raid offense, but not to those who desire all of the details to install it.
