Excerpt / adaptation:

I was forced to struggle to regain my male identity on my own. Unfortunately for me, after a summer-long unimaginable transformation into a feminine cheerleader, that was starting to look impossible. I'd just endured several weeks of the most humiliating experiences, climaxing with an ordeal I was finding hard to cope with.

Lisa Tully, a stunning girl my age, had insidiously trapped me into an unending nightmare of feminization. She'd set a fiendish plan into motion several months, maybe even years, before. At first, I naively failed to appreciate Lisa's eagerness to feminize me and her dedication to her twisted plans. To my horror, over the summer months, I'd learned never to underestimate her.

One day in June, she causally mentioned that she'd fabricated text messages as if they were from me. In each of them, I was revealing a pattern of overpowering feminine desires. At first, she made it look like I was asking her questions about cheerleading, and later they had me begging her to teach me how to be a girl.

She loved to tie me to my bed and read the messages to me in a high-pitched breathy voice, making it out that I was a total bimbo. In these fake messages, I appeared to be a tortured transgendered person. She had been meticulous, crafting dozens if not hundreds of messages.

Her handiwork made it seem like I was conflicted about my desires, certain that I could only be happy as a girl, but afraid of what my parents would say. As each text unfolded, I appeared more and more disgusted with my masculinity, and despite my fears, increasingly desperate to embrace "my true feminine nature."

Lisa's plans had worked perfectly so far, and I was stuck as a feminized cheer girl all summer long. Every day I knew I had to break out of this terrible trap, but despite all my efforts, I kept falling deeper into it. Escape seemed more and more remote, as she continued feminizing me and teaching me how to look and act like a beautiful young female cheerleader.

Reading me the texts and teasing me about how feminine I was made me angry at first. She knew that provoking me this way while I was helpless and in bondage would methodically break down my sense of outrage. I struggled impotently against the strong handcuffs or clothesline, even after I realized there was no escape for me.

Every time she did this, she assaulted my masculinity, replacing it with a shameful sense of feminine helplessness. Before long, she'd remade my personality into abject submissiveness.

She used me sexually as a girl, dominated me, and renamed me Leanne. She'd even injected me with female hormones and androgen blockers. In every way—mentally, physically, and emotionally—she was transforming me into a pretty girl.

If possible, things were about to become even worse. I was heading back to the city to begin a new life at a new school with my new BFF Lisa, living at her home with her family. All that was horribly, humiliating different from anything I'd ever imagined.

Can Lee ever escape Lisa's Terrible Trap, or will he be stuck as Leanne forever?
