MURDER GENE BY TONY AYDINER PDF

Murder Gene tells the story of a family persecuted by a force of evil, intent on destroying them.

Mark, 14 years old, is led to believe by a malevolent outsider that his mother will die in pain from disease. Influenced in the most sickening way, Mark believes that the only way he can save his mother from a long drawn out death is to murder her himself.

The revelations that follow reveal twisted family secrets that should have stayed buried forever. As far as the outsider is concerned, Mark's mother was just the start of the horror and torment, and the work will not be complete until the whole family is dead.

Determined to wreak havoc, the outsider sets about destroying a family from the inside out, determined to demonstrate that murder might just be a genetic trait.

But when nature fights nurture, will it be love or evil that wins out? With a terrifying and shocking climax, and a twist you cannot see coming, Murder Gene will have your nerves shredded and the pages turning until the end.

Good story

By MARY HARDING-YATES

Good story. The grammatical errors were kind of frustrating, but if you can get past that it's not a bad read.
