Praise the Lord

By Iris J. Davis

No-Nonsense Dating:Maximize Your Confidence and Recognize Your God-Given Soul Mate is a blessing from God. I thank God for the author because as a christian woman it is always a blessing to believe that I will find my God-given soul mate in a world that always shows the opposite. I recommend this book to all single christian woman because sometime you just need help understanding what to do.

Luv it Luv it Can't Get Enough

By Scarletjazz

This book is a GREAT read, my boyfriend and I read and discuss, discuss and read. We use this as a reference. Dr. Ron breaks it all down regarding relationships period. This book would be good for singles, married folks and those who are dating that may be getting serious. We (boyfriend and myself) find that after reading certain chapters we tend to always go back into discussion way after the fact of the material that we've read. I love this book and I have been telling many about it. I also appreciate the fact that the material is not one-sided. I oops We will make another purchase of one of Dr. Ron's books I know definitely.

High five to you Dr. Ron

Starting the dating game.

By rasinl

This is a Christmas Present I gave myself. I've been widowed for 4 years and have no idea about dating. I watched Dr. Elmore of TV and wanted to read the book. I'm only through the 3rd chapter (started it last night) and already feel uplifted. I want a christian relationship and had no idea even where to start. Now I believe I do.
