RED MIDNIGHT BY HEATHER GRAHAM PDF

On a trip to the Soviet Union, an American model finds herself stuck in a deadly game of espionage.

Erin McCabe is taking the trip of a lifetime to Soviet Russia. Before she even crosses the border, she has a series of run-ins with the ruggedly handsome American diplomat Jarod Steele. But how coincidental are these encounters? In a flash, Erin finds herself at the center of a wild spy plot, where truth is indistinguishable from falsehood, and the difference between good guys and bad guys is impossible to tell.

No question Heather is #100

By J.Fisher

This is one of Heather' s best.and that's saying a lot. Anyone who's read any of her books knows she's top notch, always delivers a great read. I'd say this is one of her best offers yet. Try it you'll love it.

Not Her Best

By Barbara A Martin

Heather never writes anything really bad. This was just too rushed and superficial. Doesn't mean I won't keep reading her books. No author is a robot, we all slip once in awhile. If you're not familiar with Heather' s writing, get so. You won't be sorry.
