Relatos de vidas pasadas, actuales y futuras. Este libro de Helena Nieto nos invita a reflexionar si nuestro andar gira en torno a la complacencia hacia los demás o hacia nosotros mismos, y cuál de las dos es la que verdaderamente nos satisface. Una novela llena de sentimientos, con un lenguaje sencillo pero bien estructurado, de personajes tan reales que podrías encontrarlos a la vuelta de la esquina y con una historia de amor y de verdad innegable.

Una muy linda novela

By Paula Guzman

Una novela muy linda, muy bien escrita, aveces la gente solo juzga a las personas sin ponerse en sus zapatos, no se sabe detrás que traen las personas para comportarse de la manera que lo hacen , aquí habla de valentía para afrontar lo que siente la protagonista , aun en contra de lo socialmente correcto. Nadie es tan malo y tampoco tan bueno.

Una lectura muy entretenida

Five Stars

By lectora de amazon

Una novela muy diferente que yo no clasificaría como Romántica. Creo que esta autora escribe Narrativa. La idea de clasificarlo todo hace que se pierda la esencia de una novela como esta que al tener ese matiz de romántica hará que se pierda para muchas lectoras que huyen del género. No me gusta la romántica especialmente, pero me hablaron tan bien de esta novela que decidí leerla. NO me arrepiento. Y un diez para la autora por tratar de un tema tan delicado como es el maltrato psicológico dentro de un matrimonio, que desgraciadamente es un tema muy actual. La recomiendo tanto a amantes del género como a los que no. Me tuvo en un hasta el final. Tiene su parte dulce con la relación de Lilian con Andrés, pero sin duda, la protagonista claramente definida es Lilian. Muy buenos los secundarios y un psicópata Alfonso, perfectamente logrado. La autora ha sido muy valiente. Y a partir de ahora puede contarme como una de sus lectoras. Pero insisto, esta novela no es lo que yo al menos, considero romántica. A beautiful book that comes to the heart
